SICIP Skill Training empowers youth with industry-relevant technical and employability skills to enhance job readiness and self-employment opportunities. Through competency-based training, practical learning, and career guidance, participants develop the knowledge, confidence, and professional attitude required to succeed in today's competitive workforce. The program supports sustainable livelihoods, economic growth, and workforce development by creating skilled, productive, and future-ready professionals.